

The Boston Globe

FEBRUARY 11, 2009

Fudgy, squared

When a culinary school project turned into a business for Emily Kooris, the Ashland resident started baking her incredibly fudgy brownies full time. Made with high-quality ingredients and baked in small batches, Emily's Brownies come in rich dark chocolate and chocolate walnut, along with kid-friendly flavors such as M&M and Reese's Pieces. The treats are available in individually wrapped 3-inch squares ($1.95), small bags ($4.25), and, for valentines to share, one-pound pans ($8.25). Available at Quebrada Baking Co., 272 Washington St., Wellesley, 781-237-2111; The Sherborn Out at The Sherborn Inn, 33 North Main St., Sherborn, 508-655-9521; and online at www.emilysbrownies.net.